

58TH
ANNUAL

SPRING WILDFLOWER PILGRIMAGE

& National Park Experience

April 23–27, 2008

Mills Conference Center • Gatlinburg, TN

The Spring Wildflower Pilgrimage is an annual five-day event in Great Smoky Mountains National Park consisting of a variety of wildflower and wildlife related walks, motorcades, photographic tours, art classes, and indoor seminars. Most programs are outdoors in Great Smoky Mountains National Park, while indoor offerings are held in various venues throughout Gatlinburg, TN.

To learn more, visit our website at the address below, email Judy@GSMAssoc.org, or phone (865) 436-7318, x222. Online registration begins March 10, 2008 at 9 a.m.

↑ We're going green! → We will not be mailing out brochures to past attendees this year due to price of postage and waste of paper. Please visit the website below to download a printable 2008 Spring Wildflower Pilgrimage brochure. We will also have a number of printed brochures at on-site registration in Mills Conference Center.

WWW.SPRINGWILDFLOWERPIGRIMAGE.ORG